In Scotland, report all scams to Advice Direct Scotland by calling 0808 164 6000 (Mon-Fri 9am-5pm) or online at www.consumeradvice.scot

Fraud

If you have been the victim of fraud, report it to Police Scotland on 101 or 999 in an emergency.

Suspicious Emails

You can forward suspicious emails to report@phishing.gov.uk and send links from websites which you think are trying to scam the public to the National Cyber Security Centre's scam website reporting service at www.ncsc.gov.uk/section/about-this-website/report-scam-website

Suspicious Text Messages

If you receive a suspicious text message you can forward it to 7726. The free-of-charge '7726' service enables your provider to investigate and take action if malicious content is found.

Phishing

Warning signs:

- E-mail that uses generic terms like 'Dear account holder'
- E-mail is threatening and states that urgent action is required
- E-mail has a link you don't recognise
- Spelling errors in the e-mail
- E-mail address is different from trusted company's website
- Unexpected e-mails from a company you have no business with
- No padlock sign on website and no 'https://' at the beginning of web address.

Keep yourself safe:

- Keep your browser software up-to-date
- Avoid risky sites, including supposed investment sites
- Never click on a link in an e-mail from an unknown person
- Use spam filters if you can
- Never give out your personal details, passwords or security codes via e-mail
- Don't leave personal documents lying around for anyone else to see
- If you're throwing away correspondence, remember to shred it first.

Fraudulent transactions and identity fraud

Purchases made without the person's consent is one of the most reported forms of cyber-enabled fraud.

This is when a fraudster gets access to their victim's accounts or uses their payment details to take money or buy things.

These offences use different phishing techniques to get a victim's account details. The fraudster also uses the victim's debit/credit card or phone. They then use these to carry out transactions online.

Access can also be gained through remote access to a victim's devices. The fraudster then gets access to their accounts.

If any transactions on your account are suspicious, contact your bank/credit card company as soon as possible. You should report this and allow them to carry out an investigation.

Minutes of the flood forum meeting held on 4th December 2024

Present:

- Michele Bennett, Hendy Spence, Ryan Campbell, Malcolm MacCormick, Gail Donald.

Apologies:

- Doug MacPhee

1. Flooding Gauges

- Gary Martin (River Track) will carry out maintenance on the two monitors at a cost of £350 per annum. One resident has agreed to have a monitor on their property. It is better to connect to a householders wi-fi wherever possible. There was a question as to whether the Scottish Government Resilience could cover the cost of this. A new river gauge costs between £1000-1200. There is already a gauge in the Gonachan Burn belonging to Stirling Council so there was discussion as to whether there may be a better location for a new one. MM suggested putting a gauge above the loup of Fintry. ACTION: MB to ask GM for a quote for another gauge and look into getting funding for it. MM also suggested contacting Stirling University to find out if they would be interested in doing a study of data from the gauges before and after the installation of the leaky dams. ACTION – RC to try and find a contact.

2. Leaky Dams

- Two grants have been received for the installation of leaky dams – one for £24.5K from Stirling Council and one for £15K from SSE. Work is due to start in early January. Consideration is being given to putting a leaky dam near the wind farm but MM would need to test the phone/wi-fi signal there. GD mentioned that the hydrometry department have a device or an app that they use at gauging stations to check for the strongest network signal. She also thought it may be possible to get a SIM card which can access more than one network. ACTION – GD to speak to the hydrometry department regarding signal checker and multi-network SIM cards. MM mentioned an idea he had seen recently to put willow weave across the waterway upstream of the leaky dam to catch any larger branches or debris and prevent damage to the dam. This would have to be checked with the landowner.

3. Flood warning signs

- RC checked the flood warning sign on Kippen Road that MB had been struggling to flip open and had managed to open it. He offered to show MB how to do it.
- MB asked again about the second warning sign that had been promised at the bottom of Culcreuch Avenue. ACTION – RC to speak to Marie.

4. Drains

- The drain cleaning has still not been done. That is over a year now. RC said that there had been a hold-up with finalising the contract sorted. ACTION – RC to look at the upcoming drain clearing schedule.
- MB mentioned that water has been coming down Quarry Road and causing sheets of ice to develop on Dunmore Gardens. The water seems to be coming up out of the ground.

5. Road subsidence

- This is between the sewage works and Knockraich Farm. The bank is eroding from the top down – it is not erosion from the river. MB does not have a contact in the Roads Department that she can speak to directly any more. She spoke to Stephen Bly after the last meeting (in September) but nothing has happened since. The Roads Department were asked to contact the Flooding Department. RC did not know if this had happened but will check. MB was advised to ask for an FOI (Freedom of Information). ACTION – RC to check if the Roads Department had been in touch. MB to ask for an FOI.

6. Erosion behind sports centre

- This is an ongoing problem which could become a real issue if it is not dealt with. One problem is identifying who owns the land and therefore who should deal with the issue. MM suggested cutting back some of the trees to reduce the weight on the root balls. MB has applied to the windfarm for a grant for willows to protect the embankment.

7. Any other business

- MB has met with representatives from Earlsburn to ask about funds for flood prevention measures. They are interested in working together on flooding issues and a meeting will be arranged. They have asked MB to put together a plan of what needs to be done and MB suggested a meeting early next year to work out what to ask for. MB recalled a flood survey carried out a few years ago by the Scottish Flood Forum which identified the areas in Fintry which are most at risk and will circulate their findings to the group.
- MB suggested holding a public meeting to let residents know what work has been done and what is planned. The last public meeting was in 2019. It was proposed to hold the meeting in April 2025.

8. Date of next meeting

Wednesday 19th February 2025 1 p.m.
